Myra Description

Sailing schooner MYRA was designed and built by Turkish Ege Yat yacht builders in 2003, the yacht received a refit in 2010. Sailing Gulet MYRA is available in the West and East Mediterranean for up to 12 guests in 6 cabins, making her ideal for larger groups.

Sailing yacht MYRA has a traditional vibe about her. The exterior steel hull is painted deep rich black, her bulwarks are high gloss varnish and the decks a classic teak. The interior is spacious and warm boasting fine woods panels and teak and holly inlay floors.

Aboard the S/Y MYRA, the salon is in the raised deck house, large ports allow ample natural light and great viewing. On the port side 2 formal dining tables seat all 12 guests with room to spare, on the starboard side a built in lounge and coffee table invite guests to relax in comfort. A flat screen TV and audio system is available for indoor entertainment. Four double guest cabins are forward of the salon, while 2 twin guest cabins are aft of the salon.

Exterior living on charter yacht MYRA is plentiful. The aft deck offers an alfresco dining option, seating and aft facing sunpads, shade from a Bimini cover can be provided. Further sunpads on the foredeck allow everyone to find a place to relax. S/Y MYRA boasts generous wrap around teaks decks, with high rails, the yacht is easy to walk around safely both at anchor and under sail.

Sailing schooner MYRA has a beam of 7.6m (25ft) and a draft of 2.7m (9ft), under full sail the yacht flies 5 sails, she is mechanically powered by 1 x 350hp Aifo Iveco engine and is capable of 8.5 - 11 knots. S/Y MYRA has a professional permanent crew of 4.

Air conditioning available on board

Accommodation

The MYRA can accommodate up to 12 guests in 6 en-suite cabins. Forward of the salon are 4 double cabins, 2 on port and 2 on starboard. Aft of the salon are 2 twin cabins on port and starboard. Each cabin has a simplistic warm atmosphere with a serene calm feel.
